

The Student Code of Conduct

1. This Code of Conduct and the related Disciplinary Procedure are intended to provide fair procedures for maintaining reasonable behaviour by students while they are enrolled on a programme at the College.
2. Students are expected to behave in accordance with the College's Rules and Regulations, and in particular in respect of:
  - a. Academic Regulations, including the regulations on plagiarism and other academic offences;
  - b. Health and Safety;
  - c. Equal Opportunities;
  - d. all College facilities including teaching facilities, car parks, learning centres, computing services, laboratories, workshops, studios;
  - e. the requirements of Professional Bodies.

The Rules and Regulations are written down in a document called the 3 Rs, which can be found in Student Handbook.

3. It is the responsibility of all students to ensure that they are aware of any such regulations or standards and to adhere to them. If there is cause for concern over a student behaving in an unacceptable way the student will be subject to the Disciplinary Procedure.
4. Any behaviour which infringes the College's policies, rules or regulations, causes distress to individuals, or disruption or disturbance in the learning or social environments of the College, is unacceptable, and may be subject to disciplinary procedures.
5. The Student Charter describes the College's commitment to its students and its expectations of students in return. The Charter gives a broad flavour of what our commitments are to you, and what you are expected to do in return.
6. In any situation, in any part of the College or when involved in any College activities such as placements, field trips, social events, the College expects that:
  - a. students behave with good sense, behave with consideration towards others and respect their differences and take care in the use of the College's facilities or services;

- b. students will not interfere with the normal working of the College or any of its facilities or services nor bring the College into disrepute by any of their actions.
7. If a student feels s/he is a victim of inappropriate or unacceptable behaviour s/he has the right to use the College's Complaints and/or Grievance Procedures.
