

Induction Student Support

Janice Dempster Ellis MBPsS
aka Jan

- SEN, Safeguarding & Employability Officer
- Room 104 Ext 1041
- j.dempsterellis@lcuck.ac.uk

Who I am

My qualifications

My Masters degree (MSc) is in Health Psychology, Bachelors degree (BSc) in Psychology & Counselling and an Access to Teaching Diploma (2012).

I have extensive research skills and mentoring experience within University, college and after school tuition settings.

What I do in the College

- I specifically provide support with Academic writing at HNC/D/Degree level, structure of essays, mentoring and Pastoral care.
- I work within either qualitative or quantitative research areas.
- I am able to proofread drafts, but do not help with specific content, only grammar, layout and academic research skills including planning and researching topics, and with CV writing

What I do (continued )

If there are any problems within the college, or you have problems with coping with the work on the course you can come to me in Room 104 and I will help in a confidential and supportive way with advice, or signpost you onto the correct member of staff also.

I can email you back lots of academic writing resources, help guides, links to study sites also.

Pastoral Care / Issues

Pastoral Support

Any issues or advice needed

- With your course
- With sorting out funding
- Feeling a bit overwhelmed?
- Or need a chat about something else?

For confidential help or advice drop in or make an appointment with Janice* in Room 104

- *BSc Psychology & Counselling MSc Health Psychology
- Member of the British Psychological Society

HN GLOBAL

A really good resource that all HNC/D students can access through this college is HN Global.

HN Global is an exciting online platform created by Pearson for BTEC Higher National students around the world. Created in parallel with the development of the new BTEC Higher National qualifications, HN Global houses a great number of resources for students to get the most out of their BTEC Higher National experience.

- access to course specific core textbooks,
- work on their CV,
- improve their study skills by completing online learning modules targeted at common development areas.

STUDY SKILLS SESSIONS

- I run Study Skills sessions in the Library, in your tutorials and in group or one to one sessions.
- If you need any academic skills help please email me first and I will arrange a time to help you, in confidence.
- Thank you all and Happy Studying! 😊

Janice Dempster Ellis MBPsS SEN & Employability Officer Room 104 / 0207
243 4000 Ext 1041 / j.dempsterellis@lcuck.ac.uk

I specifically provide support with Academic writing at HNC/D/Degree level, structure of essays, mentoring and Pastoral care. My MSc is in Health Psychology, BSc in Psychology & Counselling and an Access to Teaching Diploma (2012), with extensive research skills and mentoring experience within University, college and after school tuition settings. I can work within either qualitative or quantitative research areas. I am able to proofread drafts, but do not help with specific content, only grammar, layout and academic research skills including planning and researching topics, and with CV writing. If there are any problems within the college, or you have problems with coping with the work on the course you can come to me in Room 104/ email or call and I will help in a confidential and supportive way with advice, or signpost you onto the correct member of staff also.

I can email you back lots of academic writing resources, help guides, links to study sites etc.

A really good resource that all HNC/D students can access through this college is HN Global.

HN Global is an exciting online platform created by Pearson for BTEC Higher National students around the world. Created in parallel with the development of the new BTEC Higher National qualifications, HN Global houses a great number of resources for students to get the most out of their BTEC Higher National experience. With HN Global, students can get access to course specific core textbooks, work on their CV, and improve their study skills by completing online learning modules targeted at common development areas.

- Career Centre: Get access to the Careers Centre which empowers every student to take charge of their own career development and forge their personal career path.
- Self-directed study skills modules to provide students with the tools to develop their academic skills in areas such as critical and creative thinking, reading and analysis, and writing for higher education.
- Curated targeted reading lists developed by Pearson in collaboration with subject matter experts, for the business and engineering sectors.
- Forums and a community space to interact and engage in conversations.

To make sure that our qualifications are providing the most relevant career-related content, industry expertise is placed at the heart of BTEC Higher National qualifications. Throughout qualification design, development and validation, we work with employers, HE and FE experts and students to structure our qualifications to meet industry standards.

We work with industry post-validation to further recognise our qualifications as high quality and career-focused; whether that be in the form of upskilling their own workforce with our qualifications or simply formally accepting the qualification as a part of the application process.

Referencing and Library resources can be accessed through our Library contact: Francesca Young at f.young@lcuck.ac.uk